

INTERLACHEN NEWS

Thanksgiving day passed very pleasantly here; a number of family parties were enjoyed by those participating, and a community dinner in the hall, under the direction of Mesdames Boeler and Matt Leonard attracted many from both town and country. A very interesting and well rendered program by the public school children followed the dinner.

A special church service was held at ten a. m. in the Congregational church, with music by the church quartette and a Thanksgiving sermon by Robert Caldwell, pastor of the Methodist church.

A jolly dance and social for the young people at the hall, closed the observances of the day.

Mrs. Amelia Corthell and Miss Sarah Perkins, accompanied by their brother, Mr. Joshua Perkins, and a niece, arrived home from their sojourn in South Ganson, Mass., on Wednesday last week.

An unusually severe electric storm visited this section Sunday evening, and several persons complained of having suffered electric shocks. A heavy downpour of rain followed the brilliant electrical display.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Coburn and family, and Mr. B. F. Taylor of Palatka were Thursday guests at the Lake View, and Miss Dorothy Coburn remained here over the week-end with her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Nelson came down from Jacksonville to spend Thanksgiving vacation days in their pretty cottage here. Mrs. Gorham, who has leased the Nelson cottage for the season, arrived last week with her two little children.

Mr. S. Cook, of the Cook Lighting Company, with his assistant, Mr. Wagner, has been busily engaged here for the past week installing new lighting systems in a number of homes, and putting in additional lights for those who had systems put in last spring and have tried them out through the summer. The economy and simplicity of these brilliant lights make a strong appeal to those who are beyond reach of electric light service, and are solving the problem of furnishing adequate light to country and village homes.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lambert are mourning the death of their tiny infant daughter, Vivien Elizabeth, who passed away Saturday after an illness of four days, not quite a month after she came into the world to gladden their home and hearts. The grief-stricken young father and mother have the tenderest sympathy of the entire community. The little one was laid to rest Sunday afternoon in Pine View cemetery, the simple commitment service being conducted by Rev. S. B. Ross, and the many beautiful flowers which veiled the tiny casket bore mute testimony of the love and sympathy of friends. Miss Adeline Nagle arrived from Jacksonville Saturday night and was present at the funeral, but returned to the city Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. M. Jones and Mrs. A. B. Corthell went to Gainesville Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Auxiliary of the Episcopal church. Miss Grace Townsend is again absent on a trip over the State, visiting friends in various towns and hamlets.

SAN MATEO NEWS

S. W. Rowley and J. W. Browning motored to Jacksonville on business Monday.

R. S. Bohon was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Collins on Sunday. The annual meeting of the V. I. A. will be held at the hall Tuesday December 6th, at 3 p. m. A full attendance is desired.

Misses Charlotte and Harriet Hopkins of Geneva, N. Y., are expected tomorrow and Mrs. A. S. Hall, wife and daughter Eunice, are due Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McReynolds, sr., of Hopkinsville, Ky., are again occupying their cosy home here.

Wm. Fisher and daughter, Miss Margaret, of West Palmyra, N. Y., arrived Thursday accompanied by Mrs. Vanderpool who will make an extended visit.

Cards have been received announcing the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Harry of Jacksonville on Nov. 22nd. Mrs. Harry will be remembered here as Miss Lilian Ferris.

Miss Mary Cross is among the recent arrivals and will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. E. B. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Rudolph spent the day Tuesday in St. Augustine.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Carroll of Dover, N. J., motored down from their northern home, arriving here Monday morning. They have rented apartments at Mrs. L. M. Tingley's. Mr. Arthur Tuttle of Groton, Mass., with his son and grand-son, made the trip down by automobile again, arriving here Thursday night. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jewell and two daughters who have rented Mrs. David Gamble's cottage.

Otis Ferrell and Miss Florrie Ward of Live Oak, were married at the home of the bride on Thanksgiving Day, arriving here Saturday.

WHEN WORKING FORCES ARE CUT
In times of business depression the poorest workers are laid off first and efficient men and women retained. Backache, stiff muscles, aching joints, swollen hands and feet, rheumatic pains, bladder weakness and other symptoms of kidney trouble keep many persons from doing their best. John Geo. Bauer, Jr., 312 E. Brighton Rd., N. S. Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "I am relieved of all kidney trouble now, but the only relief was Foley's Kidney Pills. I am now well and strong; no more getting up at nights." For sale by J. H. Haughton.

If a man has a conviction that almost anybody can lick him, he finds solace in the belief that he is an intellectual.
